

Data flow in the National Drug Treatment Monitoring System

* Error verification reports include fatal errors, and warning and information messages. Fatal errors will result in the record being rejected from the ECMS database, e.g data in the 8 key fields is missing or incorrect; warning and information messages will not result in a rejected record, but indicates that some of the data may not be properly filled in. This requires the information to be checked and confirmed/amended at source.